> The New York Tribune. NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclu-sions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union; the Constitution, and the sucremacy of the Law. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism and spolintion, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affect-ing the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehen-sive newspaper, for which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and full-ness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to "make each day a critiq on the last," ... In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measures of patronage hitherto accorded to our
